

VALLEY VIEWS EQUESTRIAN PARK ARENA RULES

Welcome to our Valley Views Equestrian Park events at our Chattering Arenas. Please take a moment to read through our basic rules for our venue. It would be appreciated if you could abide by the following guidelines so that you have a fun, safe and enjoyable event:

Please ensure you leave your float parking/camping site clean and tidy and free from rubbish.

There is a toilet/shower located in the ablution block opposite the panel arena, another toilet located in the bottom shed near round yard.

Children must be supervised at all times

- If the sole guardian is competing children must remain in a visible spectator area only.

Horses:

-Please refrain from tying horses to trees or Arena panels
-Please only tie to your own float or keep them in a stable/float yard.

-Stallions must be green tagged and when not ridden either double tied and hobbled or tied in a separate stallion yard.

-Red ribbon/tags to be used on aggressive horses

And horses prone to kicking

-Please keep horses out of spectator area, only use the laneway to access the arena.

Gear

Swearing/foul language is not permitted in competition, during clinics.

-Inhumane treatment of horses and cattle will not be tolerated and if witnessed, you will be asked to remove yourself from the property.

-Aggressive behaviour will not be tolerated

Any concerns may be brought to the attention of the Clinic Representative or Valley Views Equestrian Park Staff.

-Please ensure all gates are left as they were upon arrival and no paddock shall be entered unless prior approval has been given.

-Riding around the property is not permitted unless prior approval has been given.-
Any saddle style is permitted (gear must be safe and in good condition, not worn)

-Helmets are mandatory for under 18 years and on any training/clinic events.

-No alcohol or drugs are to be consumed prior or during an event by competitors or clinic attendees.